

WYA Southeast Europe Director

Job Description

Position Overview:

The World Youth Alliance Southeast Europe Director (SEED) is responsible for mission activity and growth throughout this region. The SEED reports directly to the WYA Europe Director. The SEED is responsible for the implementation of the strategic plan at the sub-regional level. This position requires dedication to new membership growth and development, while maintaining relations with current members, friends, partners and other key contacts.

Africa

Asia Pacific

Europe

Latin America

Middle East

North America

Responsibilities:

- Develops and implements the strategic plan for Southeast Europe.
- Engages regularly with key members to discuss progress, challenges, and innovative ideas, providing leadership and guidance in support of WYA's mission.
- Actively seeks opportunities to promote WYA through events, conferences, seminars, schools, youth events, and other opportunities as applicable.
- Leads growth, sustainability and expansion of WYA projects, events and programs.
- Collaborates in the implementation of all regional priorities.

Requirements:

The WYA SEED should possess an undergraduate education, exceptional organizational and leadership skills, and have completed WYA foundational training. Strong communication and networking abilities are essential, along with the capability to effectively train and mentor team members. The successful candidate will be a self-starter, and able to work independently to accomplish significant projects within complex systems. Priority will be given to candidates who have already held successful leadership positions within the region, such as chapter or committee leadership. This is an in-person role based in Zagreb, Croatia offering a unique opportunity to contribute to WYA's regional growth.